Text: Calculus, Early Transcendentals, Jon Rogawski, W. H. Freeman and Company (note: an e-version of the book is included in the purchase of online homework)

Grades:

A student's grade will be based upon online homework (WebAssign), discussion quizzes, and exams in accordance with the table below.

Online Homework:	20%
Quizzes:	15%
Midterm Exams (3):	45%
Final Exam:	20%

Online Homework: Students are required to register for online homework with WebAssign using the link available on the homepage in Canvas. This service costs $50 and students receive an electronic version of the textbook. During the course of the semester, online homeworks will be assigned on a routine basis and must be completed within the given time interval.

Quizzes: A quiz will be given every week to insure that the student is keeping current with lecture topics. You must be present at the beginning of the class in order to take the quiz. There will be no makeups for missed quizzes, however several quiz grades will be dropped at the end of the semester to compensate for absences.

Exams: During the semester we will have three mid-term exams and a final. For the midterm exams, approximately 65% of the points will come from multiple choice questions with the final 35% of the exam based upon free-response problems; the final exam will consist solely of multiple choice questions. All exams are evening assembly exams and will be on May 31st, June 15th, July 18th, and August 4th. All exams must be taken on the given date and at the given time.

A student's final grade is based upon a standard grading scale:

- A* : 90 % or above
- B*⁺: 87 % or above
- B* : 80 % or above
- C*⁺: 77 % or above
- C* : 70 % or above
- D*⁺: 67 % or above
- D* : 60 % or above
- E* : below 60 %

Students grades and additional information will be posted on the Canvas website which can be accessed using the link: <http://Iss.at.ufl.edu>. To login to this site use your Gatorlink name and password.

At the end of the semester a student's grade will not be rounded and no additional assignments will be given to improve a student's academic standing in the course.

Additional Topics:

Attendance is mandatory if a student wishes to master the subject and the student is responsible for all announcements and lecture material covered in class. Makeup tests will only be given in cases of documented illness or for students participating in official University events.

In addition to WebAssign, supplementary homework problems from the book will be assigned on a daily basis for additional practice as needed; it is imperative for students to complete all graded assignments in order to perform well on the exams. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated and will be treated in accordance with the policies of the University of Florida. During the course of the semester we will cover material from chapters 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17.

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. The documentation should be provided at the earliest possible date.
